

School of Justice Studies

Scarlet Avila

Submitted by David Saunders

Scarlet Avila exemplifies academic excellence and unwavering dedication to the field of criminal justice. With a stellar GPA and a reputation as a focused, driven student, Scarlet stands out as a role model for her peers. A local student, she earned a highly competitive internship with the District Attorney's Office Bureau of Investigation, where she worked directly with victims and witnesses and quickly became known as dependable, hardworking, and competent. Her commitment to justice and service is evident in both her academic work and professional experience. Scarlet will continue her studies in criminal justice at Cal State Northridge this fall and plans to return to our community to serve in the field. She represents the very best of our department and its future.